GATE RECEIPTS CAUSING STRIFE

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 28.—Protests broke between colleges and universities in the Pacific coast conference over the division of football gate receipts which may be decided by a meeting of conference officials to be held at Stanford university when the conference track meet is held here in May.
Washington and the University of Berkeley over the division of football gate receipts located in large cities, are standing out against the claims of the colleges from the smaller cities for an even split in the gate receipts. The "big schools" want to give the "smaller schools" a guaranteed amount. The two claim they will lose money when they come journey to the small towns and split the receipts.

Washington and Washington State colleges have already cancelled their scheduled football game, as a result of the dispute, and Washington and the Oregon Agricultural college are talking of not playing their game.
Prospectors may find those popular triplicate location certificate books at the Bonanza office.

U. S. INCOME TAX EXEMPTS NOBODY

Every Person Who Had Income in 1919 Must Determine Own Liability.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Surest Way is to Follow Form 1040A.
Free Advice in Doubtful Cases.
Severe Penalties in Law.

Nobody is exempt from Income Tax. An obligation is laid directly on the shoulders of each citizen and resident to consider his own case and to get his return in on time if one is due.
With each return showing a tax due a payment must accompany the return in the full amount of the tax or at least one-quarter of the tax.
All returns for 1919 must be filed on or before March 15.

Must Show True Figures.
In figuring up his earnings for income tax purposes a person must take into consideration all items of taxable income, and each item itself must be accurate in amount. Guesses and estimates must be avoided, for the return is made under oath.

Everybody who had an income during 1919 must now determine whether his or her net income was sufficient in amount to require an income tax return. The best way to find out is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income and if a return is due, it tells how to prepare and file it.

One of the important points to keep in mind is that a person's net income is found by a computation prescribed in the law, and this computation of income from every source must be considered, unless specifically exempted.

Another thing to remember is that the personal exemption allowed taxpayers by law has no relation whatever to the requirement to file a return. This exemption is not to be considered until a person has figured out his net income and determined whether it was sufficient to require him to file a return. Then, if a return is due, he should read carefully the instructions for claiming exemption and complete his return.

If in doubt of any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office. Many banks and trust companies are also furnishing similar service during banking hours.

Heavy Penalties in Law

For failing to make a return on time the penalty is a fine of not more than $1,000 and an addition of 25 per cent to the tax, if any. For making a false or fraudulent return the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both; and, in addition, 50 per cent of the tax. There are other penalties for failing to pay tax when due and for understatement of the tax through negligence.

Many Sources of Income.

Aside from what one may earn by his services, there are many other sources of income. If he sold any property during 1919 he must figure out the gain realized. If he received buildings, land, apartments or rooms such gains must be considered taxable, and he may claim deductions for necessary expenses incidental to such gains.

Bank interest is a common source of income and is taxable whether withdrawn or not. Any amount of interest credited to a depositor is income to the depositor.

Interest on mortgages and notes is taxable; also bond interest received from corporations.

A taxpayer who wished his net income during 1919 must report as income any excess received over the total of previous years.

Members of partnerships or partnerships, service corporations or partnerships of an estate or trust must report their share of income distributable to them whether or not a return was filed.

Dividends of domestic corporations must be reported. Many other sources of income are taxable and must be fully reported.

INCOME TAX IS DUE MARCH 15

Penalties for Delay and Failure to Make Returns—Early Compliance Urged.

All incomes for 1919 must be filed on or before March 15. Each taxpayer must file a return showing his net income for the year 1919. If a taxpayer fails to file a return on time, he will be liable for a fine of not more than $1,000 and an addition of 25 per cent to the tax, if any. For making a false or fraudulent return the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both; and, in addition, 50 per cent of the tax. There are other penalties for failing to pay tax when due and for understatement of the tax through negligence.
